Boat Handling Weekend - affectionally known as "Bumps & Grinds", this weekend gives you the chance to practise those difficult manoeuvres under controlled conditions. It is dedicated to practising boat handling skills principally, but not necessarily exclusively, manoeuvring under power. This is run with 4 Crew per boat to offer maximum opportunity to practice. Minimum experience ~10 days at sea. If there is sufficient interest we may also run a 'Ladies Only' boat.	2.5	07/04/2017	09/04/2017	£190	Hazel Bagnall btosccrew@gmail.com
BTOSC Spring Rally, AGM & Dinner - Enjoy a weekend Solent sail and meet with old or make some new friends. Everyone is welcome and if you are thinking of learning to sail this is an ideal opportunity to come and meet us as we usually charter a number of yachts for this event. There will be a brief Annual General Meeting and an informal dinner ashore on the Saturday evening (13 May). One yacht will be chartered from Thursday 11/05 to make this a long weekend for some. Please contact the Event Manager ASAP if you are interested in this extra day.	2.5	12/05/2017	14/05/2017	£200	Nigel Wiltshire - nigel.wiltshire@btinternet.com
A one-way French cruise. Outline plan is to board Yacht in Hamble, local shakedown passage, then Cross Channel to Le Harve and the pretty port of Hornfleur. NB Return by Ferry. There may be opportunities in the following weeks to continue on additional weekly legs to Cherbourg, St. Helier, Roscoff and Brest.
